CIRCLE K TEMPE MUSICAL FESTIVAL HOLDS LOCAL BAND COMPETITION; WINNERS TO OPEN FOR EVENT HEADLINERS, EARN SCHOLARSHIP AND GEAR

All statewide high school and college "garage bands" are invited to compete for a music scholarship and a chance to "open" for the national headlining acts featured at this year's Circle K Tempe Music Festival. The winning band will also receive $2,500 in musical equipment from Fender. The competition, which is sponsored by SRP, Fender Musical Instruments Corporation and Cox Communications, is part of the annual award-winning event, held this year on March 28 and 29 at Tempe Beach Park.

In order to be eligible, bands must be comprised of at least 50 percent band members whom are currently enrolled in an Arizona high school and or an accredited state, community or private college. Bands can visit www.ecollegetimes.com to enter. All bands must submit a demo CD with a minimum of two tracks along with data CD and hard copies of the following:

- Completed entry and consent form
- Bio or one-sheet
- Band photograph
- Lyrics for submitted songs
